Democratic Secret Leagues--The Assassins Exposed.

We are in possession of papers and information fully substantiating the following facts concerning the treasonable organization and purposes of the Democracy of Oregon.

The secret, oath bound organizations of Democrats which existed all over the United States in 1864 and in some places before that time known as 'Knights of the Golden Circle,' 'Sons of Liberty,' 'Sons of Freedom' 'Friends of the Union' 'The Old Guard," etc., etc. were in all essential particulars the same. They were sometimes known by one name and sometimes by the other to suit circumstances and places. When over secrets were believed to have become leaky the name of the Order was often changed as were, also grips, signs, passwords, signals rituals and forms of the oaths.

The order was introduced into the Northern States by emissaries from the Southern Confederacy, mostly from over the Canada border. In 1864 it was introduced into Oregon under the name of "The Old Guard," but was frequently designated toward the close of the Presidential campaign as "The Jones Family." Just prior to the election, several changes in the ritual, oaths, grips, signs, secret oyphor, etc., were made through fear of exposure, several members having become reformatory.

The expose published by the Oregon Statesman early in May, as far as it goes, contains the correct work, as carried on at one time, but many changes were made just before the election in November.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE EACH OTHER

The signs and grips, etc., cannot be fully illustrated without the use of cuts. The street sign was thumbs extended along the breast of the coat this was afterwards changed by thrusting the thumbs through the upper button holes and turning them in a peculiar manner, indescribable without an illustration cut. This was followed by the question, "Where did you come from?" Answer: 'From the Valley.'" Question "What did you hear in the Valley?" Answer "I heard a fowl crowing in my ears." Question 'What did you have for breakfast?" Answer "Ham." Questioner responds 'Valladolid*upf*?" Answer "Yes." Then followed the grips.

As stated in the Statesman's expose and in the letter of S S Markham, of Albany the order had signs and signals to be used on the battlefield, in case a member or members wished to be recognized by the enemy or wished to surrender themselves, or to convey information of the movements of the army or of political results in the North. By the use of these signs and signals, the rebel leaders were kept posted as to transpiring events within the Union lines. There were quite a number of ways by which a recognition could be effected but they are not essential here and our room is too limited for their publication.

THE ORGANIZATION IN OREGON

The order in Oregon consisted of a Grand "Encampment," "Lodge," "Council," "Circle" or "Rondevous"—using whatever name circumstances might at the time dictate, subordinate organizations with similar names for each county, and still simpler organizations for precincts. The "Grand Master" of the "Old Guard" organization (for the State) was L F MOSHER of Roseburg. The 'Grand Secretary" was T. N. CATON, of Salem.

THE ENCAMPMENT IN PORTLAND

In Portland there were three encampments of the 'Old Guard," presided over and commanded by "captains of the Guard" L. F GROVER was "chief adviser," not an office, but an honorary title and position, as LAWYER for the concern. These encampments divided in the use of arms within the city of Portland, but for company and battalion drill, they had grounds about twelve miles west of Portland. The companies, each composing an encampment, were officered as in the Confederate army.

OBJECTS OF THE ORGANIZATION

The objects of the order were to be prepared TO RESIST THE DRAFT, should one be ordered, to be in readiness, in case of a stay of success of the rebel armies, to give simultaneous unity, STRIKE THE STATE GOVERNMENTS and either annex them to the Southern Confederacy or establish "Eastern," "Northwestern" Confederacies and a "PACIFIC REPUBLIC," an event might prove most desirable. The Order on this coast decidedly favored a "Pacific Republic." It proposed to include California Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and as much of adjoining Mexican territory as could be seized, with San Francisco as the capitol.

THE INDIANA CONSPIRACY AND THE PROPOSED REVOLUTION IN THE NORTH

The outbreak in Indiana in 1864, was expected here, weeks before it occurred. It was known by members in Portland that it would occur, and the date was talked of in the encampment meetings. It was often discussed whether it would be a favorable time to make a general movement. It was in contemplation and solemnly agreed upon among all the encampments or circles of the North, that if the rebels should achieve any signal success during the summer of 1864 THE REVOLUTION TO DEPOSE PRESIDENT LINCOLN, should be immediately inaugurated otherwise it would not take place till the night of the 1st and possibly not for three days there after. This scheme was not abandoned by official orders till a few days before the election. The successes of the Union armies during the summer rendered the scheme too hazardous. The mere election of either Lincoln or McClellan would not have retarded the standing of the proposed revolution the success or fail of the rebel armies was what determined that matter.

THE ASSASSINATION OF LINCOLN

Our informant is not positive as to where the proposal to assassinate the President originated but it was talked about before the election and the night before the election was the time originally set for the execution of the deed. It was expected that in the confusion and frenzy following the assassination nothing effective could be done by the Government toward suppressing the general revolution. The assassination was not to commence on the night of the election because of the abandonment of the general scheme of revolution, the democratic managers counting confidently on success. The day of the inauguration was afterward fixed upon, but the man who was to do it weakened. J Wilkes Booth was not the original tool. The assassination was talked about among members of the Order in Portland some favoring it while others opposed it strenuously.

TELLING THE TRIGGERS

One Dr Betts an active 'Guard' and an instructing agent, was in Portland for some time in 1864. He had a small instrument provided with a 'repeating' apparatus by which he tapped the electric clicks, allowing them to pass on or interrupt ing them altogether, as he might choose. The wires were never cut but a small wire with a weight attached was thrown over the line, and thus by attaching to the ground, served to break the connection. By means of this instrument Betts frequently became possessed of important news from six to twelve hours in advance of their publication in the papers. In this way, the best military secrets of the order in Portland knew of the movements of Lincoln several hours before the rejection was of the OREGONIAN BATTALION, which prevented the said intelligence to other persons outside of the office.

MANNER AND PLACE OF INITIATION

Captains of Guards and other authorized persons initiated candidates, sometimes formally inside the encampment, but quite as often in some private room, or dark corner, and in some instances in the open street or on the side walk. It consisted of asking the candidate any questions by which the officiating person might be satisfied of the trustworthiness of the candidate, the administration of the oath and, where the place was not to public, the instruction in the signs, pass words etc. When this last could not be safely done it was deferred to some subsequent appointed time. Several well known persons in Portland, now members of the Democratic Club, were initiated in private rooms in the Lincoln, Western, Columbian, Arrigoni's, and other hotels. In a few instances, candidates were initiated at their residences, and one or two were initiated in the Methodist Church.

PLOT TO BLOW UP VANCOUVER ARSENAL

Before the Presidential election and while the schemes for a general uprising on election night, was pending, the order in California had a general arrangement by which the State's arms were everywhere to be seized and if possible, also, to secure the arsenal at Benicia. IN OREGON, THE ORDER WAS ARMED EVERYWHERE as fully as possible, but it was thought that not enough guns were in their possession to cope with the soldiers and such citizens as Gen Alvord could arm. IT WAS THEREFORE, DETERMINED TO GET POSSESSION OF THE VANCOUVER ARSENAL. The plot was as follows:

On the west side of the garrison is a row of stables, the armory or store house for arms is nearly a half mile to the east in an enclosure separated entirely from the garrison and guarded by one sentinel, the magazine is in the same enclosure but standing by itself, down on the flat toward the river and usually guarded by one sentinel. Within that enclosure there were not beside the sentinels, more than half a dozen men, usually, including Captain Pickerson, military storekeeper, and his clerks. The plot was to take forty picked men from the Portland encampments, under command of one of the Captains of the Guard, cross one or two at a time to the Columbia river opposite the ordnance grounds. When all were ready they were to cross at midnight, to the east side of the river, landing opposite the magazine, thence to crawl up to the enclosure of the ordnance grounds, and wait for the concerted signal. Two trusty men were to go by way of the town to the rear of the stables before mentioned AND FIRE THEM a few minutes after the posting of the midnight sentinels and when the fire should be well under way, to raise the greatest possible alarm, assisted by other confederates within the garrison. This was expected to attract to the fire, every person in or about the ordnance grounds, except the sentinels. A couple of active men for each, were expected to gag them so as to prevent any outcry. In the first confusion of the alarm the "Captain" with his forty picked men were to spring into the grounds, FORCE THE ARMORY TAKE WHAT ARMS THEY COULD CARRY AND HAUL WITH A TEAM ON HAND, SPIKE OR RENDER UNSERVICEABLE ALL THE REST, BLOW UP THE MAGAZINE with a three minutes fuse, retreat to their battery, and go down the river a short distance to a point before selected and ENTRENCH. The object was not really so much to procure arms as to DESTROY, SO THAT GEN ALVORD COULD NOT ARM THE CITIZENS OF OREGON.

This patriotic and eminently democratic scheme was frustrated by a member of the order—one of the party—who got possession of

The Daily Oregonian.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 25, 1866

UNION STATE TICKET.

For Congress,
RUFUS MALLORY of Marion.

For Governor,
GEORGE L WOODS of Wasco

For Secretary of State,
SAMUEL E MAY of Jackson

For State Treasurer,
P N COOKE, of Marion

For State Printer,
W A McPHILLIPS of Linn

Come to Instruct Us.

We think we have heard, during the present canvass, one or two growls from the Democratic spunkers or editors or some other man, about the "imported Hawkins." Hawkins has damaged them some, if their yelping is any indication. The Democracy have been driven to the necessity of adopting McClellan's favorite strategy his strong suit—calling for reinforcements. They have gone into the importing business this year almost as extensively as when they thought by such means to carry Polk county with imported beasts. Among the imported reinforcements—for in Calif'rnia are the redoubtable J B Weller whilom of the "Pacific Republic," and Bertah Brown whilom the hero of a race for life out of San Francisco at a time when several of the friends of the murdered Lincoln were anxiously looking for him. These gentlemen have been "imported" here to teach the unsophisticated and barbarous Oregonians how to vote, to teach them that secession and treason are the highest proofs of devoted patriotism, that but for a little Democratic insurrection and blood letting the Government would have perished of an overdose of peace and prosperity. These and sundry other Democratic teachings by these California lights, are expected to so lift the darkness which now rests upon our benighted and befogged "Webfoot," as to enable men to see clearly how it is that whilom traitors are now the most loyal men in the world, and how the Union can only be preserved by putting it in charge of Jeff Davis, A H Stephens, Raphael Semmes, Quantrills Mosoby and a few more such distinguished and patriotic rebels—including, of course, those California teachers.

Now come up ye poor, ignorant, simple minded Webfeet, and learn from these wise men of California that staying at home and abusing Lincoln and Congress and Union soldiers was the loyal way to serve your country. You are ignorant, you know, and can't read much and may, therefore, be partly excusable for thinking, as a good many of you have done, that fighting against your country, and aiding, encouraging and abetting rebels was TREASON. But tor' bless your souls, those California teachers can make you see it in quite a different light, in less than a minute. They come from California, they do, and are "edificated," you see, and they can make it as plain as day that Jeff Davis was and is "one of the purest and bravest of patriots," as old Jo. Lane told you long ago, and that Lincoln was a "gorilla" and "a ape" and a "tyrant" and a "traitor" and more too. Just give them a chance and they can make you look through California democratic spectacles and see that "Col." John Lane is a hero, a patriot, a loyal man and ought to be canonized for his "meritorious services," while Capt Geo. Williams who served in the Union army as an Oregon boy, and lost a leg at Gettysburg, was a "sneaking bushwhacker," a "buzzard," a "minion," a "fanatic," a "fool" and a "vagabond" as M. H. Abbott late of the Pike County Democrat and now of the Herald, called the Union soldiers. Don't you see, it will be worth your while to understand these things rightly. You might go on in your Oregon ignorance and vote some Union gorilla into office, and then, you know the Government couldn't stand a week; don't you see?

Weller can make you understand that if you persist in thinking and acting as though you thought treason a crime, that you'll soon be involved in a "bloodier war than ever,"—that's what he said here-and that not having any Lincoln now to hold the old ship steady, the loyal patriots (late rebels) will make your treason odious by hanging you should you attempt to think ill of the next rebellion. Now don't fail to go and hear Weller! and coax all your ignorant neighbors to go and hear him, for he has come a long ways, and at a heavy expense to the self-sacrificing "Old Guards of Portland," to instruct you. When you have a chance to hear a great man, and see him open his mouth, and blow his nose, as only a great man can do such things, it would be a wondrous pity to let slip the golden opportunity. You may never have another chance, you know. Now, voters of Oregon, if John B Weller says anything to you, don't let your backwoods pride get in the way, but just open your gawky mouths and gulp it.

Look to the Legislative Tickets

Let our friends throughout the State bear in mind that it is a matter of as great importance for the Union party to have a clear majority in the next Legislature, as it is to succeed in electing the State ticket. Upon the next Legislature will devolve the duty of choosing a United States Senator for the term of six years. We entreat our friends in every county to work with earnestness to send true Union men, and none others, to the Legislature. Suffer no local disputes or private animosities to endanger your Legislative tickets. Do not make it possible by any inattention on your part, or by contention among yourselves about candidates, for the Copperheads to send Jo Lane or fiddling Whitaker to the United States Senate. Let us have a true man to stand by Senator Williams, and to properly represent the people of Oregon for the ensuing six years. Remember, it is of the utmost consequence to choose a Legislature which shall be controlled by Unionists. We may as easily secure a United States Senator as to elect our State ticket, if we will. The whole prize is within our reach, and we have but to will it, and a complete victory is ours. Let us not be content with half a triumph, let us have the whole fruits of a victory!

Their Policy Illustrated

The Southern correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette sends the following extract from an obituary notice in the Lexington, Miss Advocate:

Mr Ray was a soldier in the rebel army.

Like many of the noble boys of the South-ern Confederacy, he, when a boy of sixteen, rushed into the ranks of the deathless spirits who flared their breasts to the fury of the Northern VANDALS (the spirits are the Everlasting) and nobly fought and bravely fell on many a field where hope itself expired dared to hope. He saw his native land overpowered but not conquered.

"Who shall dare to say" observes the correspondent, "that the native land of Jeff Davis and Gov Humphreys is not thoroughly loyal, and as much entitled to representation as Massachusetts or Vermont?" And who shall dare to question the wisdom and patriotism of the Copperheads in demanding that those unhanged rebels shall be placed in power over the loyal men of both sections of the country?

JUDGE STANBURY.—Judge Stanbury, of Ohio, recently nominated by the President to the vacancy on the bench of the Supreme Court, occasioned by the death of Judge Catron, is a lawyer of considerable ability, but has not until within a short time enjoyed anything like a national reputation. He is chiefly known to the public on account of the rumors which state that he is the author of the two veto messages of President Johnson—a service which may or may not be regarded as a special qualification by the Senate, with which body the power of appointment rests by the Constitution.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—[Special dispatch.] Intelligence of failures of banks at Cincinnati and other points in the East, and the partial suspension of specie payments at Boston, Cincinnati and Louisville. Discount & Deposit Bank of Cincinnati, bankers and leading capitalists, with liabilities of $1,000,000. Ohio Life & Trust Co, Cincinnati, suspended specie payments. Its liabilities are $2,000,000. Its assets are $3,000,000 in paper beyond the legal circulation limit. Hardly any of the emergency. Other banks under State charters are failing and it is believed a heavy drain on this country for specie will be organized, and possibly panic in New York will follow.

Gold in New York yesterday was 1.33¾. Greenbacks about 68 cents on a dollar in currency.

The steamer Constitution from the California ports via Panama, arrived at Acapulco on the 15th inst. Her British mail, Capt Taylor, Vice Consul John Rose and C E Lowe, Esq, of this city, and Wells Fargo & Co's Express, Alfred Redington, agent, W L Ralston, Dist Atty.

Mrs Lizzie Bell, who has been canvassing in California for Jeff Davis, the Chief Traitor of the Rebellion, returned to the east by the overland route. She has left over the wife and amount of $7,000 to the Ladies Protection and Relief Society of this city, as a fund for the support of the orphans of deceased soldiers in the United States.

A Mexican lancer circle dispatch from Mexico City to the Herald, that the Liberal troops, under the command of Gen Corona, are pressing the Evacuation of the Western Pacific Ports of Mexico, and had concentrated employed however with the condition that the company shall have no claim to the lands of the Yaqui river of San Juan.

The Union Rose and Jeffe squatter land troubles culminated this week a year after Jackson. Wm G Rose, Esq, City Surveyor, was attacked, while standing on the corner of Montgomery street and the City Hall grounds, with Col. Phelps and James Allen, kicked back being toward Kearny street when Chas P and John Dunne ran down from the direction of the City Hall and as they got within a few feet of Rose Chas Dunne drew a self cocking Dean & Adams revolver and shot Rose just at the ankle, close to the spine. As he was hit, Rose turned partially around and ran into the street, when Dunne fired three more shots on striking, Rose in the right side just at the hip and passing directly through to the left side. Falling under the sixth and another striking a slight flesh wound in the arm. Rose ran down toward Monty, many street and fell exhausting. Rose was removed to St Mary's Hospital and is still living. Dunne was arrested by Officers Ainsworth and Mcdermaid and taken to the calaboose, just in time to save him being lynched, as the crowd were shouting, hang him.

The Continental has just arrived from Mazatlan. The Times publishes an official statement of the routing of Conal forces by the French and Imperialist forces which took Mazatlan on the 9th inst., and the recapture of two guns taken from the French at the pagoda. The Mexicans on the other hand claim that they drove back the column with heavy loss, to Mazatlan.

Don Dunne has just been arrested as an accessory to the shooting of Rose. He had on a large Derringer, and Colts largest sized revolver when brought in.

Joseph Flaherty was arrested this evening, on the charge of beating H M Blumenthan on Bronson street with a cow-hide, inflicting supposed fatal injuries. Both parties are rigged, so the laundry business.

Ex-Confederate Governor Allen of Louisiana, editor of the Mexican Times, died at the city of Mexico on the 22d of April. He has relatives in Sacramento. The Sacramento brings 502 passengers; among them 85 returning, victims of the Barbarous humbug, most of whom are utterly penniless. Some paid ten dollars each for passage but more had tickets given them. The steamer also brings 191 packages of mails, 4 456 packages of merchandise and 60 packages of treasure, shipments of Monmouth P B Winchester, age 123 years, and Phillip Kmel, age 1 6 years died of consumption and were buried at sea. News had been received of Asphomell of the Isa of the Hamburg brig Swan, which recently left that port for Swan Martha. The first officer and three of the crew reached Aspinwall in a boat. They report that the vessel ran on Roncadora reef and was wrecked. Business was slowly recovering at Valpa-iso, notice having been given that the blockade was raised for the present.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—The Eastern line got out of order early. No report received to day.

Col Rose, who was shot by Dunne yesterday and reported dead, is still alive, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery. The wounds inflicted by Dunne are fatal. The community is aroused in this matter, on every hand. The affair is characterized as a cold blooded, brilliant murder. Charley and John Dunne are both in the city prison awaiting the result of the wounds inflicted on Rose.

It is reported by a gentleman just arrived from Salt Lake, that Julia Dean Hayne had been married to a Mormon elder named Cooper, a divorce having been obtained from Dr Hayne by a Mormon court.

Arrived last night—steamer Continental from Mazatlan. The Mexican Imperial Consul received official dispatches to Mazatlan May 10th, stating that the Liberals attacked the garrison of Hermosillo May 4th and after a bloody struggle captured and pillaged the town. The Imperial forces subsequently arrived, killed 200 Liberals drove out the rest and re-captured nearly all the booty. Alvan an American citizen, and Don Juan Tales who refused to give $40,000 to the Liberal cause were cruelly murdered, together with thirteen foreigners and citizens.

The Imperials defeated Corona in Sinaloa, during him thirty five miles, killing 100 men and capturing a large amount of ammunition. Several wealthy families arrived in the steamer Continental, who fled from the Liberal rule. Published accounts says that of Hermosillo, the Liberals murdered thirty eight foreigners and five hundred citizens who helped to defend the town. A strong division of Imperialists started from Mazatlan May 10th, in pursuit of Corona.

The rates of passage to New York by the next steamer for Panama, on Wednesday May 30th, have been fixed as follows: Cabin, outside rooms, $252 50; inside rooms, $181 50; second cabin, $110; steerage, $60. The steamer will connect at the Isthmus with the Arizona for New York.

This being the 87th anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria, the day is being duly observed by a large number of our British residents. The British Benevolent Society will celebrate the occasion by a public dinner this evening.

David Caldwood filed a complaint in the County Clerk's office to-day, against H C Hopkins, keeper of the Spanish cockpit in the Surveyor General's Office, for damages done to his interest in the Marchina Grant, by testifying that the signature thereto was a forgery. Although the tests that were applied by the experts, tended materially to depreciate the value of their testimony yet it seems that Mr Caldwood attaches great importance to it for he lays his damages at $80,000.

Gregorio Alviger went into the house of Dennis Arrigon, a Spanish woman living on Broadway, opposite the county jail last night with an illicit connection between them, during which he said he was kicked by down, and she in turn, stabbed him with a knife, but not injuring him seriously. A Spaniard named Soarez, then grabbed the knife and drove the latter out of the house. Subsequently he had them both arrested for an assault with a deadly weapon.

This morning at 11 o'clock John Hohenhaus a native of Switzerland, a seaman on board the schooner Orleans was knocked overboard by the main boom, near Meiggs wharf. The plucky reporter's boat went to his assistance but before they could get near him, he sank. The mate was also knocked overboard but saved himself by clinging to the sail.

A PERILOUS FEAT.—The Dalles Mountaineer of May 26th has the following: ... The manager ... has contracted with the O S N Company ... to ... the passage of the steamer Oregon over the rapids of the Columbia river. ... The latter ... undertaking, was carried out ... Stumpf, who ... we cannot ... is entitled to ... credit for the ... pilot notice for the manner in which he piloted the steamer through the perilous voyage. After waiting about an hour at Celilo ... the steamer ... Mr. Stumpf ... shortly after started up stream to ... which lay about a quarter ... from the ... Lashings ... Hoisting fair ... the signal ... steam ... the head of the rapids and ... at full speed, in order that the ... on board might have a full view of the steamer as she passed through the ... waters. As she approached the falls all ... the train remained ... silently on ... not knowing whether the result would be a cause for congratulation or sorrow; but as the little craft, piloted by a steam and steady hand, triumphantly passed the first ... about a ... went up from those on the train, which for a moment ... the monotone of the ... On she passed through the surging waters at lightning speed, until she safely passed the entire rapids. The time occupied was one minute and fifty seconds; the distance about one-half mile. The feeling among those on the train was exhibited by the expressions of praise which were freely lavished on Capt. Stumpf for his success thus far. But all was not yet safe. About two miles below were other rapids which had to be passed in order that the boat could be safely moored at the point designated. The river at this ... is not more than one hundred yards wide, and at the present stage of water with a current of about ten knots an hour. The boat passed through the rapids here with the same success ... that attended her at the upper ... and the excitement of the trip ended with the hearty congratulations of the spectators to Capt Stumpf. ... he had landed from his boat. This is the first trip ... made by a steamer over the falls of the Columbia, and ... Capt. T. J. Stumpf belongs the honor of being the successful pilot. The only known ... in the ... of the river was merely ... to lower a ... from the above mentioned ... the undertaking was a perilous one. The steamer made the trip from Celilo to the ... House, ... where she now lies, a distance of ... miles, in twenty seven minutes. It is the intention of the O S N Company to take the Oregon to Portland ... to accomplish this will require a few days. The steamer will lay at her present ... until ... water ... she will be brought over the ... of the Columbia in safety. Here she will lay until the high water of next summer ... when she will be taken over the Cascades to Portland. We hope that she will pass through them all as safely as she has through Tumwater."

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.—The Herald is in favor of a worthy and well regulated opposition—the very thing we have been contending for—and believes such to be necessary for the development of the resources of the country—so do we. Yet, the same paper holds that the present opposition, absurd as Montana ... considered ... to the good will of the community. There is a difference of opinion regarding that. We have yet to hear of a single disinterested person in the city who has not endorsed the Montana, and private letters from various parts of the State are sufficient to show us that the opposition is appreciated. It would be strange indeed if there were no opposition to the opposition and we should be surprised not to find some persons who felt a great interest in blowing for the old time. The News Letter of San Francisco, as we see by the last number received at this office, has taken up the cudgel in opposition to the opposition, but we guess it will not affect much. The people are deeply interested in the welfare of Oregon and its opposition, and they patronize it, as it well deserves to do so. If it were true that the Montana did not ... to the good will of the community, we hardly guess there would have been such a pleasant surprise tendered on board that steamer to Capt. Kelly, as the one witnessed last evening, in which a large number of gentlemen and ladies, from among our best citizens, met together for the purpose of giving expression to their feelings of regard for the generous commander. Nor would there have been a similar demonstration in San Francisco recently. People may take up their "chimneys" opposition to the "Harbor Line," and talk about its want of accommodation, etc., but the great mass of the citizens of our State will believe as they please, and by their acts show that there is a difference of opinion on those subjects.

EXCURSIONISTS.—We learn of numerous pleasure excursions to ... of town. This species of recreation is becoming quite popular. An excursion worth mentioning is talked of considerably in certain circles, having for its object the chartering of the Ann Wortley or Wilson G. Hunt, for a day time ride to the mouth of the Columbia, including a visit to the fortifications, and a return by night, when dancing will be the order of the programme. Such an excursion would be worth attending, and we trust it may take place. In order to make it successful, and prevent an overcrowding of the steamer, we would suggest ... the number of tickets be limited.

THE "MONTANA."—An error in yesterday's Oregonian, made it appear that the steamer Montana was ... and a half days in reaching her wharf at this city from San Francisco, when in truth the time was but 81 hours and one hour less than three and a half days. The balance may be slow, according to the Herald, but at 24 knots, she is fast enough to push her competitors ... sharply, and the "fare" on board is not so hard as most people patronize her.

SEEN AGAIN.—Keeping out old friend, Sam. Bonfield, on the streets yesterday, we were glad to take him by the hand and welcome him home again. Sam. left us about a year ago for the East, but returns satisfied that there is no place above soil on the American continent that can begin to equal Oregon. He will not leave us again soon. He notices that in nearly every instance where a man has left Oregon disgusted—not disgusted—he has been happy to return.

MEETING AT SANDY.—The candidates of the Union party and their opponents at Sandy yesterday. Messrs Upton, Dolph and Mallory spoke. Only four Democrats were found in the meeting the rest didn't come out to hear their candidates pressed the "dime-lionized principles." The Democratic candidates were badly worsted in the encounter. Sandy precinct will give 50 to 55 majority for the Union ticket.

PAY YOUR LICENSE TAX.—Now is the accepted time, now, in the day of settlement with Uncle Sam. Mr. Crawford, Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, will be found at his office 100 Front street, and all those who are in arrears to the Government, and who would avoid the unpleasant attentions of the U. S. Grand Jury, had better call upon him and make settlements forthwith.

POLICE COURT.—J. J. Hoffman, J.—Hoffman, Watson and Cardiff, arrested for riotous conduct at the Idaho saloon, were brought before Recorder Huffman yesterday and fined $40 and costs each for their acts; in default of which amount they were "jointly and severally" lodged in jail. McCaugh paid a fine of $5 and costs for whipping his wife.

IRISH SCENERY.—We learn that Brisbolli's Hibernicon, in connection with the Swiss Bell Ringers, now exhibiting in California, will include Oregon in their tour, and shortly exhibit in Portland. The exhibition is said to be highly interesting.

THE UP-RIVER BOATS.—As will be seen by the advertisements of the O. S. N. Company, steamers now leave Canemah for Umatilla and Walla Walla, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, instead of daily as in the past.

CHURCH MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the church and congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, in the basement, this afternoon at 4 o'clock to take action in regard to supplying the pulpit. A full attendance is requested.

THE CLUB MEETING.—The Multnomah Union Club was ... last evening by Mr. Caples, of Vancouver, L. L. Wakefield, of this city, and others. Messrs Upton and Dolph will address the meeting to-night.

CONVICTS.—The robbers of the Overland Hotel safe arrived from Umatilla last evening, in charge of the deputy Sheriff of Umatilla county, en route for a six years residence at Salem.

ATTACHED SALE.—The sale of furniture carpets and household goods in general by Kilbourn, to-day, will be worth attending. A complete fit out will be disposed of for a trifle indeed.

CHERRIES.—Very fine ripe cherries have made their appearance in our market from California.

The steamship Orizaba, Capt. Metzger, will sail this evening at 5 o'clock for San Francisco.

Protectean No. 4.—Drill this evening at ... o'clock. By order of the Foreman.

High British Tribute to the American Financial System

The London Economist, of March 17, in an article on English and American finance and banking, and which, during the whole of the civil war has had a full share of attention to the financial struggle in that country, thus speaks of the National currency and banking system, which it declares to be the most perfect and successful system of banking ever known. The Economist says:

"The United States have successfully established a currency and banking system which, during the most severe financial crisis, has proved thoroughly efficient. The National banks have not only kept their own issues at par, but have enabled the Government to borrow money on the most favorable terms, and have assisted in the circulation of the Government issues. The National banking system has, in fact, been the great financial success of the war. It has created a currency which has been universally accepted throughout the country, and has established a market for Government securities, which has enabled the Government to borrow money at a cheaper rate than it could have done under the old system of State banks. The National banking system has, in fact, been the great financial success of the war. It has created a currency which has been universally accepted throughout the country, and has established a market for Government securities, which has enabled the Government to borrow money at a cheaper rate than it could have done under the old system of State banks."

THE NEW STATE BANKING SYSTEM.

The establishment of a new banking system in America is one of the most important events in the history of the United States, and must always be a matter of interest to the whole civilized world. It is a system which has been tried in no other country, and which, if successful, will be a great boon to the people of the United States. It is a system which will be the envy of the whole world. It is a system which will be the envy of the whole world. It is a system which will be the envy of the whole world.

The Great Union Party.

The effort to build a new party upon the resulting love of country to supreme power the men who attempted to destroy the only free Government in the world, has already been covered with inconceivable disgrace. The movement had scarcely acquired the proportions of a respectable force before it quailed before a storm of popular ridicule and indignation. Even the Southern Arp, in whose behalf it was hypocritically initiated, turn from it with contempt. But desperate and unprincipled as it has been shown to be, it has served the one good end of enabling our countrymen to give another proof of their unquestionable and unquenchable patriotism. One of our favorite leaders during the rebellion has been elected by the election and deliberate confidence of the American masses in the midst of the trials and sacrifices of that unprecedented period. But what shall we say of them now? No grand or moral spectacle was ever presented than the conviction upon uprising against the threat to employ the restored power of the Government in the disgraceful duties of men who subject to life in the instinct, almost without notice, from the farthest East to the extremes. Northwest, came a fierce protest against this wrong, and a loud appeal to the representatives of the people sternly to resist it. Nor has this unjealous demonstration come from one particular party. Combining, Coalitions, an overwhelming majority of loyal people, it has outlived the sympathies of discomfited differing cabinets. The very weakness of the combinations that have rallied around what Mr Johnson called "my party," is proof of the intrinsic infirmity of that limited plan, as of the purposes of those who have it in charge. The primary or foundation idea was an error so gross and bold as may well wonder that it should have been selected as the corner stone of any party. But if it had had a better basis, what is there in sheer and stolid opposition to the measures of the majorities of the present Congress upon which to build a temporary, much less a permanent organization? Look at the issues party in the light of this enquiry. All sensible men must admit that the statesmen who suggested and prepared our mighty financial machinery are best fitted to improve, to watch over, and administer it. Who better qualified to adjust the relations of the recently secluded States to the national authority than the representatives of those who are now classified and registered the rebellion? Who are competent to care for and reinvigorate the impoverished millions as the philanthropic politicians who have been their friends throughout all the bitter and bloody conflict? To whom shall we trust the protection of our national securities and the erection of the dykes and fortifications against the waves and tempests of revolution, but the careful, trusted, and long tried servants who are still found at the Congressional helm? Who more than the Republican party and its leaders in civil and military life with affection steadily and steadily care for the Union soldiers that live, and the widows and children of those who have fallen in the defence of our liberties? Who but these, at the close of the war and the downfall of slavery can carry out and finish the reuniting reforms by which the people are to be secured republican governments in all the States? These questions have but one answer, and all who attempt to act upon any other hope but that suggested by the only reply that can be made to them, whether it be a ten thousand times President, or a party larger than that which sought to defeat Abraham Lincoln in 1864 will be humiliated and defeated. The American Republic, saved from death and slavery will not be family surrendered by those who gave to its cause their choicest gifts of treasure and of blood.—Washington Chronicle

AN EXTRAORDINARY OCCURRENCE.—A correspondent of the Hartford Times tells a story of a volunteer in one of the Connecticut regiments, who in the advance of the grand Army of the Potomac in 1862 was taken sick died and was buried, the correspondent performing the last sad rites over the remains of his dead comrade. A white wood board was placed over the grave and the soldier was left to his long sleep.

Time passed, the war ended, the correspondent was honorably discharged, and he had forgotten in the rush of events his comrade sleeping by the banks of the Rapidan who in the city or city in Portland, who should appear before him but the dead and buried soldier. It is not strange that he felt a curious sensation come over him; but he looked at the figure before him without speaking, that he stepped aside when the other advanced to meet him with outstretched hand. The denouement is thus given:

"Will you not know me?"

Said I: "Yes, I do. But what, in the name of God are you doing here? I helped to bury you once in Virginia."

"I know that some one buried me, and I always thought you were one of them, and you were always so kind to me. But you see now," said he, offering his hand to me, "that I am flesh and blood."

I shook hands with him, and he told me that he was in a trance when we buried him, and that he was digging his way out and had got his head out, when the rebs came along and assisted him. They then sent him to Libby prison, where they kept him in durance for a year. They then sent him to Georgia, where he remained till the war was ended, when he was released.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DILUENTO, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
